Congratulations to Dr. Catherine Y. P. Chan on Receiving Akao Prize® and Becoming an IAQ Associate Academician

Dr. Catherine Y. P. Chan, committee member of Hong Kong Society for Quality (HKSQ) and Founder President of Hong Kong Quality Function Deployment Association, received Akao Prize® 2019.

The Akao Prize®, founded by Prof. Yoji Akao in 1996, is awarded to individuals who have demonstrated excellence in their practice and made substantial contributions to the advancement of QFD on a global level. Taken into consideration are advanced research, innovation, excellence in practical applications, leadership in international collaborations pertaining to QFD and ISO 16355, and continual skills upgrading through QFD Certificates training, as well as notable personal commitment and service to the international QFD community.

Mr. Glenn Mazur, on behalf of International Council for QFD, presented the Akao Prize® to Dr. Catherine Y. P. Chan at the award ceremony and symposium reception held on 7th September 2019 during the 25th International Symposium on QFD in Boise, Idaho, USA.

International Academy for Quality (IAQ) is an independent, self-supported, non-profit, non-governmental organization administered by a collegial assembly of individuals who have been elected by their peers from among the most respected, active and experienced protagonists of quality in the world.

Ms Liz Kiem and Mr. Janak Mehta presented the certificate of Associate Academician of IAQ to Dr. Catherine Y. P. Chan at the IAQ meeting held at Shanghai Association for Quality on 4th December 2019.
